Students attend Datudu festival

By R. Bhargavi and K. Sravanthi

One day we went to Ravuru Tanda because they were celebrating festival. That festival's name is Datudu. This is their big festival. They celebrate this festival every year.

On that day people wake up early and they wash their hair. They wear new cloths. They cook sweets. They put the sweets in front of the god. In the evening time they all gathered at sculpture. It looks like a god. His name is Datudu.

At first they prey to the god and kill the goats and cocks. They mix the blood of these two animals. They take intestines and put them in a row. The water buffalo jumped out of that row of intestines. They spread the cocks' blood on the buffalo.

We asked them how do to they feel about cutting the animals. They replied to us that it is their custom but that it is very horrible.

KRS hosts mock assembly

By V. Anitha and K. Rajitha

We attended the R.D.F. School -Kaleda assembly. We gathered some information. Students like the political leaders. Some students and teachers participate in assembly.

One student is C.M, one speaker and there are 10 M.P.s and 20 members M.L..A.s. They talked about A.P people that face some problems.

One leader tells that the cost of dahl has increased. People did not buy the dahl, so people have some problems.

One person tells about kerosene rates and somebody tells that vegetable rates are very high.

C.M says to decrease the rates. Some people fight and leader scolded ex-party. So finally C.M solved all the problems.

Marriage customs

By P. Natasha

I interviewed my friend. Her name is Swapna. She got married in 2008. I asked her what marriage is. "Marriage is the great change in our life," she said.

There are two types of marriages in India. First one is arranged marriage, second one is love marriage. Arranged marriages are more important in India. There are rarely love marriages.

Marriages are celebrated in temples and our houses. Before marriage, bride and bridegroom meet. When they meet, bride sees the bridegroom and tells her opinion on the bridegroom. After that, they marry.

Swapna got love marriage. She married her brother-in-law. She feels very happy.

Dasara Festival

By R. Bhargavi

I interviewed Yamini. She celebrated Dasara very well. On Dasara, she gets up at 4 o'clock. She finishes her work at 6 o'clock. Afterwards, she takes bath and wears new clothes. She puts on make-up heavily that day.

Many relatives visited her home. Afterwards, she fills the colors in the mugulu. Sometimes she takes her relatives in her home. On that day, her mother cooks sweets.

Afterwards, they go to Rama's temple. They pray to the god. After some time, they leave the temple and come back to her house.

In the evening time, they have a party. They are happy that day because Rama killed Ravana. In the nighttime, they listen to Rama's stories.

Ravana was a cruel person. In her village, some youth members created Ravana picture. On Dasara, people smash that picture.

They have picnic that day and pray to the gods and eat coconut. They enjoy the day a lot.

Archery profile: Md. Sofia Naaz

By G. Swathi

Md. Sofia Naaz chose archery because small kids can shoot. She dreamed that she would become a sportsman. When she was studying in the 7th class, she heard about archery.

She asked to join the archery team but the coach did not allow athletes in the 7th class. In the 8th class, she asked the coach again and he gave her permission.

In the 9th class, she participated in junior competition. When she entered a competition, she lost confidence, but senior archery is the biggest game in the world.
